AN ACT TO ADD A NEW CHAPTER 6 TO DIVISION 1
OF TITLE 22, GUAM CODE ANNOTATED, RELATIVE TO THE FAIR CHANCES HIRING PROCESS ACT.

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF GUAM:

2 Section 1. Legislative Findings and Intent. I Liheslaturan Guáhan finds 3 that it is a legitimate government interest to successfully reintegrate individuals
4 convicted of crimes into the community by removing barriers to gainful
5 employment. Reintegration of those with criminal histories into the workforce is 6 critical to reducing recidivism and increasing public safety and welfare, as well as

1 providing those convicted with the dignity of honest work. Greater employment rates
2 will result in an increased tax base and reduced reliance on government welfare
3 programs, both of which positively impact local taxpayers. This law in no way 4 establishes that employers have a quota for individuals with a criminal history, nor 5 does it require employers to hire individuals with a criminal history over more
6 qualified individuals without a criminal history. This law does not entitle all persons 7 with criminal histories to employment of their choosing, but it does provide a fresh
8 start after a conviction during the job hunting process. The Fair Chances Hiring 9 Process Act prohibits the consideration of a job applicant's criminal history that was 10 dismissed, expunged, sealed, or did not result in a conviction during the hiring 11 process. The Fair Chances Hiring Process Act also changes the sequencing of when 12 an employer may ask applicants about their criminal history, postponing such 13 questions until after an employer makes a conditional offer of employment. An offer 14 of conditional employment to an applicant with a criminal history may still be 15 rescinded for a legitimate business reason, as outlined in this law. The Guam
16 Department of Labor is authorized to provide training and enforcement of this law.
17 Finally, in an effort to protect the interests of employers, the Fair Chances Hiring
18 Process Act creates certain immunities for employers who hire those with criminal 19 records in accordance with this law.

20 Section 2. A new Chapter 6 is hereby added to Division 1 of Title 22, 21 Guam Annotated Code, to read as follows:

- § 6108. Effective Date.

ARTICLE 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 6101. Definitions. As used in this Chapter:

- (a) Applicant means any person considered for, or who requests to be considered for, employment by an employer; or, any employee considered for, or who requests to be considered for, another employment position, by the employer.
- (b) Arrest means being apprehended, detained, taken into custody, held for investigation, or restrained by a law enforcement agency due to an accusation or suspicion that a person committed a crime.
- (c) Conditional offer of employment means an oral or written offer by an employer to employ an individual in a job, or placement in a staffing agency's staffing pool, that is conditioned solely on the employer's evaluation of the individual's criminal history.

1 (d) Criminal history means any conviction, plea of nolo contendere, or 2 deferred adjudication arising from felony criminal accusation, or any misdemeanor
3 criminal accusation, made under local or federal law, or a comparable law of a state
4 of the United States. This does not include dismissed, expunged, or sealed cases.

5 (e) Employer means any person, company, corporation, general contractor, 6 firm, labor organization, or association, including the government of Guam, that 7 employs more than fifteen (15) employees in Guam.

8 (f) Employment means any occupation, vocation, job, or work for pay,
9 including temporary or seasonal work, contracted work, contingent work, and work 10 through the services of a temporary or other employment agency; or, any form of 11 vocational or educational training with pay, where the physical location of the 12 employment is in whole or in substantial part, within Guam.

13 (g) Inquiry means any direct or indirect conduct intended to gather criminal 14 history information from or about the applicant, candidate, or employee, using any 15 method, including application forms, interviews, and criminal history or background 16 checks.

17 (h) Interview means any direct contact by the employer with the applicant
18 in person, or by telephone or video-teleconferencing, to discuss the employment 19 being sought or the applicant's qualifications.

20 § 6102. General Policy.

21 (a) An employer shall not request that a police clearance or a court 22 clearance be provided as part of the application for employment; however, upon a 23 conditional offer, an employer may request an employee provide evidence as to any 24 pending criminal cases or criminal history, in accordance with this Chapter.

25 (b) For purposes of this Chapter, The Guam Police Department and the 26 Superior Court of Guam shall not reveal any information concerning an arrest that 27 did not result in a filed criminal case, or concerning a court case that has been

1 dismissed, whether it has been expunged or not, and whether or not it was dismissed
2 with prejudice or without prejudice, except to the person whose record it is, or to a 3 licensed attorney representing that person, or upon order of the Court.

4 (c) An employer shall not make any inquiry about, or require the disclosure
5 of, an applicant's arrest record or criminal cases which resulted in dismissal,
6 expungement, sealing, or did not result in a conviction. This prohibition, however,
7 shall not apply into inquiry about pending criminal cases against the applicant,
8 which may be inquired about according to the guidelines below.

9 (d) An employer may only inquire about or require the disclosure of an 10 applicant's criminal history or pending criminal cases after or upon making a 11 conditional offer of employment.

12 (e) The prohibition of this Section shall not apply:

13 (1) where any federal or local law or regulation requires the 14 consideration of an applicant's criminal history for the purpose of 15 employment;

16 (2) to any position designated by the employer as part of a federal or 17 local government position or obligation that is designed to encourage the 18 employment of those with criminal histories; or

19 (3) to any position which requires that employee to work in close 20 proximity of or provides programs, services, or direct care to minors.

21 (f) Following the extension of a conditional offer of employment, an 22 employer may only withdraw the conditional offer to an applicant for a legitimate 23 business reason. The employer's determination of a legitimate business reason must 24 also be reasonable in light of the following factors:

25 (1) the specific duties and responsibilities necessarily related to the 26 employment sought or held by the person;

1 (2) the bearing, if any, that the open criminal case or criminal history 2 will have on the applicant's fitness or ability to perform one (1) or more such 3 duties and responsibilities;

4 (3) the time which has elapsed since the occurrence of the pending
5 criminal case or criminal history;

6 (4) the age of the person at the time of the pending criminal case or 7 criminal history;

8 (5) the frequency and severity of the pending criminal case or 9 criminal history; and

10 (6) any information produced by the person, or produced on his/her 11 behalf, in regard to his/her rehabilitation and good conduct since the 12 occurrence of the pending criminal case or criminal history.

13 (g) If an applicant's conditional offer is terminated or an adverse action is 14 taken against an applicant on the basis of the pending criminal case or criminal 15 history, the applicant may request that the employer provide the applicant within 16 thirty (30) days:

17 (1) a copy of any and all records procured by the employer in 18 consideration of the applicant or employee, including criminal records; and 19 (2) a written Statement of Denial which:

20 (A) articulates a legitimate business reason for the denial;

21 (B) specifically demonstrates consideration of each of the 22 factors set forth in Subsection (d) of this Section; and

23 (C) advises the applicant of his or her opportunity to file an 24 administrative complaint with the Guam Department of Labor.

25 (3) Failure to provide a written Statement of Denial upon request as 26 set forth in this Subsection shall create a rebuttable presumption that no 27 legitimate business reason exists for denying the applicant employment or

1 taking an adverse action against an employee on the basis of a criminal 2 history.

3 ARTICLE 2

4 GUAM DEPARTMENT OF LABOR ADMINISTRATION AND 5 ENFORCEMENT ROLE

6 § 6103. Complaint Process.

7 (a) A person claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this Chapter may 8 file an administrative complaint with the Guam Department of Labor (Department), 9 in accordance with procedures set forth by the Department.

10 (b) The administrative remedies outlined in Subsection (a) of this Section 11 are exclusive. A person claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this Chapter shall 12 not have a private cause of action in any court based on a violation of this Chapter.

13 (c) Any administrative complaint made under the provisions of this 14 Chapter must be made within ninety (90) days of notification of denial of 15 employment by an employer.

16 § 6104. Administrative Responsibilities.

17 (a) The Guam Department of Labor shall develop administrative rules and 18 regulations in accordance with outlining the procedures by which it will accept,
19 investigate, and adjudicate complaints of Fair Chances Hiring Process Act
20 violations, and the enforcement of provisions of the Act. All rules and regulations 21 shall comply with the Administrative Adjudication Law, as required in Chapter 9 of 22 Title 5, Guam Code Annotated.

23 (1) The Director of Labor shall be the Hearing Officer in any appeals
24 relative to enforcement actions initiated by the Fair Employment Practice 25 Office.

26 (2) The Fair Employment Practice Office shall have all necessary
27 enforcement and investigative powers to enforce provisions of this Act.

1 (3) The Department may refer any unpaid penalties to the 2 Department of Revenue and Taxation, or other appropriate licensing entities,
3 who shall require that all penalties under this Act be paid in full before 4 renewing a business license.

5 (b) In the development and application of rules and regulations, the 6 Department shall take into consideration penalties ranging from training, retraining, 7 written warning, and financial penalties. The Guam Department of Labor is hereby 8 authorized to issue fines for violations of this Act in accordance with the following 9 monetary caps:

10 (1) for employers that employ fifteen (15) to thirty (30) employees, 11 a fine of up to, but not more than, One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00) per 12 violation;

13 (2) for employers that employ thirty-one (31) to ninety-nine (99)
14 employees, a fine of up to, but not more than, Two Thousand Dollars 15 ($2000.00) per violation; and

16 (3) for employers that employ one hundred (100) or more
17 employees, or for any government of Guam agency, a fine of up to, but not 18 more than, Four Thousand Dollars ($4000.00) per violation.

19 (c) The Guam Department of Labor may develop a training program and/or 20 a plan for providing training resources for employers and their representatives, such 21 as hiring authorities or human resource officers. The program may include a 22 mandatory posting in each employer's premises, developed by the Department, 23 which notifies employees of this Act and other labor laws.

24 (d) Any penalty fines for violations of this Act shall be collected by the 25 Department of Labor. Fines collected by the Department under the provisions of this 26 Section shall be deposited in the Manpower Development Fund to be employed
27 exclusively for the training programs and enforcement operations within the Fair

1 Employment Practice Office. The Director of Labor shall submit an annual report of 2 all expenditures and activities under this Subsection to I Liheslatura (the 3 Legislature).

4 (e) An employer may request for an advisory opinion from the Fair
5 Employment Practice Office with regards to a specific situation related to this Act;
6 provided, however, that the Director may decline to entertain such requests at his or 7 her discretion.

8 § 6105. Reporting Requirements.

9 (a) The Guam Department of Labor Compliance Office shall maintain data
10 on the number of complaints filed pursuant to this Act, demographic information on 11 the complainants, the number of investigations it conducts, and the disposition of 12 every complaint and investigation, complete with a summary as to the Department's 13 compliance with its rules and regulations.

14 (b) In the event that an employer is found to have more than one (1)
15 violation of this Act, the Guam Department of Labor Compliance Office shall post
16 the name of the employer on the Guam Department of Labor official website.
17 Employers found to be in violation of this Act shall not be posted for their first 18 violation, but shall be posted for all subsequent violations. The names of applicants
19 impacted by an employer violation shall not be named. This posting shall be made 20 on the Guam Department of Labor official website, and shall include the date of the 21 violation. Violating employers shall be listed on the official website for a period of 22 seven (7) years after they are found in violation, and removed after that time period.

23 (c) Data maintained by the Guam Department of Labor regarding 24 Subsection (a) of this Section shall be posted on its official website annually
25 beginning one (1) year from the effective date of the Fair Chances Hiring Process
26 Act.

27 ARTICLE 3

1 EMPLOYER PROTECTIONS AND INCENTIVES

2 § 6106. Negligent Hiring Immunity.

3 (a) A cause of action may not be brought against an employer for 4 negligently hiring or failing to adequately supervise an employee, based on evidence 5 that the employee has a pending criminal case or criminal history.

6 (b) This Section does not preclude a cause of action for negligent hiring or 7 the failure of an employer to provide adequate supervision of an employee, if:

8 (1) the employer knew or should have known of the pending
9 criminal case or criminal history; and

10 (2) the employee was convicted of an offense that was committed 11 while performing duties substantially similar to those reasonably expected to 12 be performed in the employment, or under conditions substantially similar to 13 those reasonably expected to be encountered in the employment, taking into 14 consideration the factors listed in § 6102(d) of Article 1 of this Chapter.

15 (c) This Section does not create a cause of action or expand an existing 16 cause of action.

17 ARTICLE 4

18 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

19 § 6107. Severability. If any provision of this Act or its application to any 20 person or circumstance is found to be invalid, or contrary to law, such invalidity
21 shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act that can be given effect 22 without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this 23 Act are severable.

24 § 6108. Effective Date. This Act shall be effective two hundred ten (210)
25 days after enactment.”
